

Class Elections Postponed

STUDENTS SELECT NEW OFFICERS TOMORROW; POLLS OPEN FROM 8 TO 5

Class elections formerly set for today, were postponed until tomorrow, announces Don True, student body president. Accordingly, run-off elections will be held Tuesday.

Seniors will vote for the following nominees: for president, Lewis Daniels and Wilbur Scott; vice-president, Tom Harvey; secretary-treasurer, June Gross and Dorothy Jones; sergeant-at-arms, Henry Rosenzweig; AWA representative, Pat Scholk, Dorothea Bernsdorf, and Audrey Orcutt.

Junior candidates for office are: for president, Bob Roberts and Jack Tiernan; vice-president, Herb Petty, Donald Simpson and Irving Gold; secretary-treasurer, Lorraine Titcomb, and Helen Donovan.

Sophomores will vote for Paul Borg, Lee Jones, Ed Roberts, Betty Bushley, Frank Valenti and George Coles for president. Nominees for the office of vice-president include Jack Gottschang and Rex Gardner; for secretary-treasurer, Anne Mortensen, Al Corcoran, and Ray Stewart.

A new plan will be initiated by the freshman class in which each high school will be proportionately represented in a council which will govern until students are sufficiently acquainted to choose their own officers. Representatives are to be chosen by high school presidents and editors. Freshmen will meet tomorrow to approve the council.

Science Head To Address Nevada, Del Monte Groups

Dr. Victor Peterson, Science department head, will speak October 7 and 8 at a district teachers' institute held in Elko, Nevada. The following Thursday he will speak in Reno, and on October 21 he is scheduled to address a third district institute in Winnemucca.

Dr. Peterson's aim in speaking at the Nevada institutes is to encourage the development of a science program in the Nevada elementary and high schools.

He will speak October 15 at the conference on the direction and improvement of construction of child welfare at Del Monte. Dr. Carl Duncan and Dr. Robert Rhodes will also attend this conference.

Dr. Peterson will conduct a field trip on trees and shrubs at Del Monte, emphasizing how the material can be used in elementary schools.

STUDENTS, PARENTS MEET OCTOBER 9

Students are asked to invite their parents to the first Patrons association meeting of the quarter, Thursday, October 9, at 2 o'clock in room 1 of the Home Economics building.

The topic of the first meeting will be "Religion and the College Student". On the discussion board will be the Rev. S. Peabody of the Congregational church, Dean Paul Pitman, Rev. Walsh, S. J., of Santa Clara university, and students.

Howard Melton On Collegiate Radio Forum Over KFRC

Howard Melton, junior speech major, will represent San Jose State college at the Intercollegiate Forum over station KFRC this Sunday at 1:30 to discuss the question, "Are The Opinions Of College Students Affected By The War?"

Along with Melton will be representatives from University of San Francisco, College of Pacific, and San Francisco College for Women. Miss Mary Louise Bruchman of the San Francisco College for Women will be faculty moderator for this week.

The Intercollegiate Forum was originated this year by Brother Cyprian of Santa Clara university. He, as director-producer for the series of 26 broadcasts, has arranged for informal round table discussions each Sunday with representatives of colleges on the Pacific coast taking part.

The time of the broadcast has been changed this week to 1:30 instead of 11:15 as scheduled earlier.

YWCA Committees, Clubs Plan Full Activity Program

Committees and clubs sponsored by the YWCA are planning meetings for the next two weeks open to all women. Anyone interested in joining should see Jean Thoits, executive secretary, at the "Y" office in the Student Center.

Students are offered an opportunity to plan meetings, discussions, dances, suppers, and a chance to participate in all these activities.

The Public Affairs forum offers a series of speakers at its luncheon discussion meetings. Co-chairmen planning these programs are Florence Newberry and Len Brennan.

The Music Arts committee is working up programs which will be presented at hospitals, sanitariums, and to other shut-in groups. Anyone interested in planning or participating in these programs should see Frances Strom, chairman.

The Social Service club under the leadership of Jean Moss is carrying on recreational work started last year among Mexican girls.

CAST STARTS REHEARSALS FOR 'RIVALS'

Rehearsals for "The Rivals", opening production of the San Jose Players' current season, got underway yesterday afternoon, under the direction of James Clancy, star of last year's outstanding production of "Hamlet".

The role of Sir Anthony Absolute, the male lead in Richard B. Sheridan's comedy hit, will be taken by Frank Thompson, sophomore English and drama major from Redwood City.

The leading feminine role, Mrs. Malaprop, will be portrayed by Eleanor Wagner, sophomore speech major from Palm Springs, California. Lydia Languish will be enacted by Shirley Kress.

Other actors in the play as selected by Clancy after the final try-outs Monday afternoon, include Jack Hume as Jack, Howard Evans as Faulkland, Leon Fletcher as Bob Acres, Clarence Cassell as Sir Lucius O'Trigger, Barbara Whittaker as Julia, Ruth Froehlich as Lucy, Norval Guttormsen as Fag, Denny Morrisey as David, and Harrison McCreath in the role of Thomas.

The play will open on November 6. Season booklets are still available in the Speech office for one dollar for students and two dollars for outsiders. Students are reminded that booklets which were reserved last spring must be called for today or the reservations will be cancelled.

TEACHERS-TO-BE SHOULD OBTAIN COMMITTEE'S O.K.

All San Jose State college students enrolled in professional courses in education leading to a teacher's credential, must obtain the required approval of the personnel committee, it was recently announced by the personnel office.

The time for filing applications of approval is at the end of the freshman year. All students with standing beyond the freshman year should file a teacher's training application immediately if a teacher's credential from this institution is included in the college objective.

Application blanks are obtainable in the personnel office.

ART HEAD EXHIBITS PAINTINGS IN EAST

Dr. Marques E. Reitzel, associate professor of the San Jose State art department, has placed a collection of 27 oil paintings on exhibition today in the Chicago Galleries association, Chicago, Ill.

The collection is made up of 27 of the landscapes done in oil, which Dr. Reitzel submitted to win his Ph.D. Several of the pictures are California scenes while the others were done in the east before Reitzel came to San Jose.

The paintings will remain in Chicago until October 25 and then will be shown in the Hoosier Salon, in Indianapolis, Ind., during November and in Lafayette, Ind., during December.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Drum Major Ray Vidler signs up pretty Dottie Taylor for today's majorette contest to be held on the college turf.

DRUM MAJORETTES TRY OUT WITH BAND TODAY ON SAN CARLOS TURF

To have majorettes or not to have majorettes, that is the question. Yep, today is the day when all prospective majorettes strut their stuff on San Carlos turf at 4 o'clock before the critical eye of the college's 100-piece marching band.

The Music department has broken down its barrier of tradition, and invited all lasses in the college to try out today. For the past

Special Yearbook Price Suspended; Sales End Friday

The price of La Torre has gone up to $3.25 with the special $2.75 sale coming to a close yesterday afternoon.

Walter Schmidt, business manager, emphasizes that students are not required to pay the full amount now. They may pay as low as $1.25 down and $1 at the beginning of the winter and spring quarters. The sale of yearbooks will come to a close Friday afternoon.

La Torre business hours are from 11 to 1 in the Publications office.

It is also important that all campus organizations look in their boxes in the Student Union as soon as possible.

New Library Hours Begin On Monday

After more than one year of construction, the new college library opens for student use Monday, October 6, announces Miss Joyce Backus, head librarian.

few years, band members have looked down their noses at all majorettes with the exception of tiny, talented Janie May Reed.

It has been suggested that aspiring candidates wear majorette outfits for the tryout.

Rumor has it that Band Director Thomas Eagan and Drum Major Ray Vidler are keeping their fingers crossed until after the election. It is a carefully guarded secret whether or not they want a majorette to lead the band.

To casual observers, this is the second year that the band has been clad in razzle-dazzle gold uniforms, and the first year that membership has been restricted to 100 students.

If a majorette is selected by the band today, she will lead the group Friday evening in Spartan Stadium when the Golden Raiders from San Jose State college meet a grid aggregation from Fort Ord.

NYA Applications Must Be In Monday

Miss Helen Dimmick, dean of women, has announced that women who want NYA work must have their applications in by Monday.

Miss Dimmick wants these people to see her as soon as possible in her office: Mary Auzalone, Elaine Bravo, Jennie Dietz, Evelyn Falco, Adele Freeman, Gertrude Hamilton, Esther Lacitnola, Ilene Manson, Miyako Osakada, Betty Jane Pieser, Doris Simpson, Bette Jane Toland, Ruth White, Leue Wimberley, Joy Wray, Julia Zingheim.

FROSH TO MEET

The freshman class will meet this afternoon from 5 to 6 in the Morris Dailey auditorium to choose council members and discuss future activities.

Freshmen Spirits High

One of the most spirited and best governed freshman classes in history entered San Jose State college last year. It was due mostly to smart organization and a hard working roster of class officers that made this class noticed by the three upper classes.

Realizing the instability of a class just entering college a new plan known as the freshman council was put into effect at that time as the only solution. This group was composed of a representative from each high school, elected by their former high school classmates.

It proved so successful last year that the same plan is being put into use again with the experienced sophomores giving a helping hand.

The incoming class showed as much spirit as last year's at yesterday morning's meeting but it is imperative that they choose a group of real officers and get behind the council wholeheartedly if they wish to really enter into the activities here at San Jose State.

—Jensen.

La Torre Space For Sale

It's really a job to publish a self-supporting yearbook and do it successfully. Just the same, the La Torre staff has taken that problem upon itself and hopes that with the co-operation of the student body and on-campus organizations, it can put out an annual that will completely satisfy everyone.

One of the big problems that confronts them now is the fact it will be necessary to charge page space to all organizations wishing their members' pictures published. The rates will naturally be as low as possible. Regardless, it will take a lot of help from everyone to put it across successfully.

Some of our most pleasant memories occur when we can look back over the pictures and remember the fun we had in college. Just think, if you picked up an annual ten years from now and couldn't find your organization's pictures, it wouldn't be worth much.

It'll take a lot of work for La Torre staff members, it'll take a great deal of support and co-operation from the students and organizations, but it'll be worth it at the end of the year to be able to turn to your group's pictures and find your friends there, for good. Support your organization and La Torre. Remember, it counts to have your pictures in it.

—Finley.

THRUST AND PARRY

The Case Of A Set Of Books

Thrust and Parry:

Here is the hypothetical case of a student using $15 worth of new books. The figures are factual (the profit percentages being the same in all bookstores); the student might be you, me, or the next guy.

If we follow the path of a $15 set of books we find that a student may turn them in for $7.50; the bookstore will sell them for $11.25 to another student, who may turn them in for $5.65; the next student buys this same set of books for $11.25, and may also return them for $5.65. Summarizing, we find that the students after buying and selling this $15 set of books three times through the bookstore, have lost $18.70 (disregarding the bookstore's original $3.00 profit).

In view of this situation, the non-profit Student Book Exchange was formed. Now, suppose the student turns his $15 set of books into the Exchange; he should receive $9.30 for them; the next student buys them for $9.75 and receives $9.30; another student buys them for $9.75 and also sells them for $9.30. Again summarizing, we find that the total cost to the students is $6.60 ($3.00 being the bookstore's original profit on the new books). The non-profit Book Exchange received 5 per cent to cover its expenses.

Should we support the Exchange? Personally, I think I'll start a bookstore.

JUST AMONG OURSELVES

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE
President San Jose State College

Housekeeping hint: Don't throw your lunch papers around. Show a decent respect for the opinions of your fellows, and a decent concern for the good name of the college. We are often badly judged by the appearance of the college grounds and the streets where the autos are parked.

And speaking of autos, please try to park within the lines. Always lock your car. Don't drive a car that is in poor condition, poor brakes, poor tires, poor steering equipment (we don't give half-day holidays any more for funerals).

There is another matter of good housekeeping and safety. Please don't smoke in any of the buildings but the store, and please don't smoke in the main or rear quads. The front quad and the north and south campuses are open territory. It's a fair division of spheres of incense. (There is no insurance, by the way, on any of the college buildings.)

And, incidentally, if you haven't yet acquired the habit, you don't have to, you know, just because you have come to college. Fact is, it's a tough old habit to get rid of.

We are getting a good start.

Several members of the faculty have mentioned the fine spirit of the student body. Dr. Elder thinks we have the best group of good students we have ever had. With every good transcript he bubbles over with enthusiasm. We have had a better than usual group of transfers, too. It looks like a good year. If you'll help out with the housekeeping, we'll do our best to put before you a good education.

So live and work and play now so that when June rolls around again you'll have a feeling of satisfaction in a job well done.

SPARTAN SOCCER TEAM SCHEDULES EIGHT GAMES

Bear Kickers Open Season

San Jose State college's title-bound soccer team will face eight teams this year in defense of their twice-won Northern California Intercollegiate crown. The always-strong University of California will offer first competition for the Spartan shin-kickers.

All the teams to meet the Spartans this year are members of the NCI soccer league.

The 1940 champion S. J. State team won all of their games, with the exception of the San Francisco Junior college game which ended with a one-to-one tie score.

Last year the Spartans beat the California team 4-0 but lost to them the previous year. According to reports from the Bear coach, the Berkeley boys have a tough team this year and are out to cop the title.

The schedule released by the Physical Education department is as follows:

- Oct. 18—California, there.
- Oct. 25—U. of S. F., there.
- Nov. 1—Menlo J. C., here.
- Nov. 8—Stanford, here.
- Nov. 15—S. F. J. C., there.
- Nov. 22—Cal. Aggies, here.
- Nov. 29—San Mateo J. C., there.
- Dec. 6—San Francisco St., here.

SPARTANS PLOT STRATEGY FOR FORT ORD TILT

Taking no chances on the heavy Fort Ord team, Coach Ben Winkelman sent his squad through a two-hour pass scrimmage yesterday afternoon.

Figuring that the Warner reverses might find it hard to gain ground through the soldiers' line, the Spartans are preparing to concentrate their attack through the air.

With the fullbacks tossing, and the halfbacks and ends catching, the practice as a whole was unsatisfactory to Winkelman. For the first time this season, the boys did not buckle down to hard work. Instead they fooled around all afternoon.

The Golden Raiders had a scare when Ken Stanger, first string guard, after a play at his position injured his ankle. At the end of the scrimmage, the injury was better and by Friday night Kenny will be able to start.

The lineup Friday night, subject to changes, will be as follows:

SAN JOSE	FORT ORD

WORLD SERIES BROADCAST TODAY AT 10:45

All of you Brooklyn fans . . and Yankee fans too . . will be given a chance to follow your favorite team this week despite the fact that you must attend school.

Starting today at 10:45 the series will be broadcast to the students of San Jose State college over a public address system under the direction of Peter Mingrone, Speech instructor.

The broadcast will take place in front of the Little Theatre and all students are asked to show their appreciation by attending the broadcasts.

FROSH GRID TEAM WORKS ON OFFENSE

Every afternoon Coach Bud Winter is sending his freshman football team through the "mill" in preparation for their game with Santa Rosa Junior college Friday night.

Special attention is being given to polishing up the freshman offense, as Coach Winter credits last week's win to a few tricks which might not work again. Not only should the frosh ground attack be stronger than last week, but Winter has been teaching some pass plays and expects to open up the game.

The team is displaying a lot of spirit and everyone seems to be enjoying himself, as the air over the practice field is continually filled with wisecracks and good-natured taunts.

New men are turning out every day and adding to the squad, which isn't too long on reserve strength, especially in the backfield. This shortage of manpower was weakened further when second string fullback, Jack Gearing, turned up with a bad shoulder and may not be able to play.

STATE POLOISTS OPEN SEASON TOMORROW NIGHT

The 1941 water polo season will get under way tomorrow night in the local pool with the San Jose State varsity team playing the San Francisco YMCA ball splashes at 8 o'clock.

The varsity septet should be in top shape for this opening encounter and should find little difficulty in subduing the Bay City team. Last year the varsity team beat the "Y" splashes in both battles by wide margins.

However, this year's squad is somewhat weaker with only one varsity regular returning and three sophomores from last year's Frosh team.

The Freshman squad opens with the local high school septet Friday afternoon in the local pool. Last year the Spartan Yearlings trounced the San Jose high boys in both encounters but should run into some difficulty this year.

With only three well experienced players from which to form a team, Coach Walker is looking rather pessimistic this year. However, with more practice and experience he hopes to build a team that will make a good showing.

Recreational Swimming

Swimming Coach Charley Walker has announced that the college pool will be open to men students for recreational swimming from 1 to 2 daily.

Coach Walker has posted the following rules for men who wish to use the pool:

- (1) Supply own bathing cap;
- (2) Use college swimming trunks;
- (3) Take a soap shower before entering pool; and (4) Do not swim if there is not a lifeguard present.

There will also be mixed recreational swimming on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays from 1 to 2.

NOTICE

Episcopalian Students: There will be a reception for college students on Friday, October 3, at Trinity church, Second and St. John streets. Most of the entertainment will be after the football game, so come when you are able.

SPORTS SCRAPS

By "SCRAPPY" SQUATRITO

KEN COOK, last year's football captain, whose field goals and points after touchdown won many a game for San Jose, will again be kicking them. Only it will be for Moffett Field. Kenny was stationed at the Sunnyvale training center as a second lieutenant early this week.

R. M. Cuthbert has again come through with his awards for the best Spartan football performers. Winners for the Texas A. & I. game were Fred Lindsey, best back; Wilbur Wool, best lineman; and for the best block, Bert Robinson.

Louie Antognani, end the past three years and the brother of quarterback Henry Antognani, is Junior Director of Physical Education at Moffett Field.

Chalk up another loss to the pigskin squad. Bob May, 220-lb. reserve tackle, is out for the rest of the season because of injuries received in an automobile accident.

During the summer $3,700 was spent on improvements of athletic equipment. The money was spent for the following:

- $1,500—New stadium lights
- $1,000—Varsity House lunch
- 600—New clay track
- 250—New hurdles
- 350—Covers for gym mats

PERSONAL NOTE:

Freshmen or sophomore (or even juniors or seniors—I'm desperate) who want to earn a unit, doing very little work, can sign up with Graduate Manager Frank Carroll or me for sophomore football managers. Besides the unit, the managers will receive a sweater and one trip, and possibly two. Please, fellas, help out a poor old senior manager. Please!

Of the 13 men to score points for the Spartans last year only two of them are on the present squad. They are Aubrey Minter and Fred Lindsey. Last year both of them scored a total of 24 points. Lindsey has 25 so far, and Aubrey has 6.

Since the first of the wonder teams in 1937, the Spartans have a record of 48 wins, 4 defeats, and 1 tie. This includes this year's two victories. Here is the record:

Year	Won	Lost	Tie
1937	11	2	1
1938	11	1	0
1939	13	0	0

LOCAL ORCHESIS GROUP WILL PLAY HOSTESS TO EIGHT COAST COLLEGES

Plans for the modern dance symposium to be presented Sunday, October 26, were discussed at the "pre-symposium" meeting held Sunday evening at the home of Glenna Bell Moenning, Orchesis president of last year. Present were representatives of the dance groups of Mills College, Stanford University, University of California, and Fresno State college.

Also participating in the annual event, for which San Jose State college will be hostess, are dance organizations of the University of Nevada, College of the Pacific, and San Francisco State college.

A "master lesson" by an outstanding dancer will be the feature attraction of the symposium. The lesson will demonstrate the dancer's particular technique and interpretation of the dance.

Each group will present a dance problem for criticism and analysis by the others.

The symposium will begin at 9:00 Sunday morning and will end at 3:00 p.m. Luncheon and tea will be served by members of Junior Orchesis. Chairman for the event is Dorothea Jordan, graduate student who has been a member of Orchesis for seven years.

Orchesis is an honorary dance organization and members are chosen through try-outs. President Jean Moss invites all women interested in the modern dance to try out for the organization.

S.F. ARTIST BEGINS ART EXHIBIT TODAY

Theodore Polos, San Francisco artist, will present some exhibits of his work in the exhibit hall of the college Art department starting today.

The exhibit, which will include samples of water coloring, pencil drawings, and lithographs, will be for a two-week period. Mr. Polos' work includes several landscape drawings as well as figure drawings.

Sociology Club To Hear Speaker

Meeting tomorrow night at 7:30, the Sociology club will be addressed by former members who are now working for the County Welfare department.

The club will meet at 135 S. 17th street, the home of their faculty adviser.

Business for the evening will consist of election of officers and an explanation of the requirements for those wishing to major in social service work, now under consideration by the administration.

As a result of their informal meeting last night members of the Varsity House have decided to include all resident freshmen in on the venison banquet to be given at the house.

E. Hemingway Luke, rated an expert on barbecuing steaks, has promised that at least seventy plates will be served. Mr. Luke presided as chef over last quarter's Varsity House informal and is favored to be retained as present dispenser of food and drink at all occasions.

Dee Portal and Chet Carsten, burly footballer, who provided the deer meat were given a vote of thanks by the members.

That freshmen still are green. As regularly as the season rolls round some bright scribe pokes fun at the poor first year man. Monotonous, ain't it?

But we just couldn't overlook the fact that Monday morning one freshman tried to take archery from Field, while several others were trying to locate the Mr. Staff who was to instruct them in Demonstration in Home Economics.
